

FRENCH VISITORS.

6 Military and Civic Parade—Action of the Executive Committee Last Night—Location of the Various States in Line of Camp at Yorktown.

[illegible][illegible]

South Carolina, New Hampshire, Virginia, New York, North Carolina, Rhode Island, Vermont, Kentucky, and Michigan. States reporting this date will be assigned to the space to the left of the regular troops. The course of the water pipes through the camp of each State, where, by means of siphons and hogheads, water abundance can be had at all times, is also shown. Fuel will be piled in the rear of each State camp, and should, immediately upon their arrival, be taken to the front, and piled in the rear of the front of the ground. Tents will be pitched to the extent called for by the adjutants-general of States.

[illegible]

to present to receive him and conduct him to the barracks, where he will be lodged. The troops were served by troops arriving by water. Commanding officers of troops en route, when within three hours of the city, were notified by telegraph, addressed to the master of each vessel, to be ready to receive their troops at the docks. The Yorktown, via Baltimore by water, the Gloucester, via New York, and the City of New York, the Grand military parade and review by the President will be held on Thursday, the 29th of October, and it is especially desired that all troops arrange to be on the ground at 10 o'clock, so that they may be able to exercise their judgment to the extent of parade with their troops on that occasion. Seats will be reserved for the President and his family, and they can repair after the passage of their line.

The French Visitors in Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—This afternoon a committee of three gentlemen, representing the French residents of the city, called upon the King for the purpose of doing meeds for tendering them a visit to the city. They were to pass through this city shortly on their way to participate in the Yorktown celebration. The mem-informed the committee that he had prepared a message to be transmitted to the councils, recommending that the city make some grateful recognition of the presence of the distinguished visitor. The communication was sent to the councils the afternoon, when both bodies adopted resolutions concluding as follows:

Resolved by the select and common council of the City of Philadelphia, That the representative delegates of the descendants of General Lafayette, Steuben, and other prominent foreigners who voluntarily gave their distinguished services to the cause of American independence, be and hereby are, respectfully invited to visit the birthplace of independence.

Resolved, That his honor the mayor be, and he is hereby, respectfully requested to extend to the distinguished visitors the hospitalities of the city.

THE PEABODY FUND.

Meeting of the Trustees—Work of Educa-

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The trustees of the Peabody educational fund held their annual meeting yesterday at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, H.

Robert C. Winthrop, president of the board, in the chair. Among those present were ex-President Hayes, William M. Evarts, ex-Secretary of State, Judge Manning, of Louisiana; Right Rev. Bishop Doane, of New York; Hon. John A. Bland, of Ohio; Whipple; Governor Aiken, of South Carolina; General H. B. Jackson, Surgeon-General; General Barnes, Samuel Wetmore, Colonel Wymen, and Mr. Currie, general agent. Mr. Winthrop made a brief address congratulating the trustees on the success of their work.

spoke in eulogistic terms of the late George H. Rigg, one of the original trustees appointed by the Peabody, who had died since their last meeting. Dr. Currie then presented his annual report, which spoke favorably of the advancement that had been made in educational matters in the South, and "reviewed at length the work that had been accomplished. Great gratification as had been the progress both in public sentiment and educational systems, the report said, must not be concluded that free schools were established beyond the possibility of repeal or destruction."

The instruction of the board to apply greater portion of the income of the fund after to the education of teachers public schools was met with general and decided approval. The report reviewed the educational condition of West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas. The report concluded with a table, showing

ing the distribution of the income since February
West Virginia, teachers' Institutes, $2,999; Virgi teachers' institute, normal Institute, Nashv scholarship, $9,150; North Carolina Institutes schools, $4,125; South Carolina, $4,950; Geor
$5,300; Florida, $2,000; Alabama, $1,800; Missis
$3,350; Louisiana, $1,700; Texas, $10,800; Arkan
$4,000; Tennessee, $5,300. Total, $50,375.

All in the Family.

Hall Colgate, esq., father-in-law and private secretary to Colonel Charles G. McCauley, commandant of the Marine Corps, at a salary of $128 per month, resigned that position Wednesday. Charles L. McCauley, aged seventeen, son of Colonel Charles G. McCauley, commandant of the Marine Corps as aforesaid, has been appointed to the position. The place is thus kept in the family, as most of the places in the Marine Corps, at the Daisy Institution.